

Letter From Zanna Jobe

Eiline, IA

June 23, 1915

Dear Aunt [Anna M. Hunt],

This is a lovely morn. I am busy but thought that perhaps none had sent the particular of Martha's death so I am sending you. Ella's better I guess. Carrie isn't coming over. I would liked to have seen her so much. I am making me a new dress. We are all quite well, have a new fence around the yard.

I feel sorry for will as boys are gone unless Joed is home, so it will be very lonely.

I must get busy so write when you can.

Loving your niece,

Zanna Jobe
