

Letter From John F. Sonnett

Department of Justice
Washington, D.C.
August 5, 1946

Mr. Brown Henley,
Edinburg, Pennsylvania.

Dear Sir:

This Department is in receipt of your letter of July 19, 1946, stating that your patent 923,519 was granted June 1, 1909, and that you desire compensation for the use of the patent.

If your patent was granted in 1909 it expired in June 1926 and cannot now form the basis of any claim against the United States.

Respectfully,
For the Attorney General,
John F. Sonnett (Signed)
JOHN F. SONNETT,
Assistant Attorney General.
